

ALTEN acquires Accord Global Technology Solutions, an engineering services company based out of India

Press release

BANGALORE, INDIA – 2023, July 28th. ALTEN Group (“ALTEN”), headquartered in Paris, France and a market leader in engineering and technology consulting services, has recently completed the strategic acquisition of Accord Global Technology Solutions. This strategic acquisition combines ALTEN’s scale and technology diversity with the digital innovation and know-how of Accord Global Technology Solutions to focus on leveraging technologies and deepen its engineering capabilities.

Founded three decades ago and spun out of Accord Software & Systems Private Limited in 2017, Accord Global Technology Solutions Private Limited (“Accord Global Technology Solutions”) is a Bangalore based company engaged in the business of providing hardware & software engineering services, embedded systems and digital technology services to clients in the aerospace, defense, automotive and other industries across the globe.

ALTEN has acquired Accord Global Technology Solutions which is one of the three businesses of Accord Group.

*“The addition of Accord Global Technology Solutions to the ALTEN family strengthens our engineering business capabilities in India. As a combined entity, we can support our clients globally throughout the entire engineering lifecycle with both services and solutions. Accord Global Technology Solutions will enable a fruitful diversification of ALTEN positioning in India for local and worldwide customers. They will enrich our expertise in innovative areas like Aerospace and Automotive embedded solutions. I am excited to welcome everyone at Accord Global Technology Solutions into the ALTEN family. Talking about the company’s plans in India, Pascal Amore (EVP, Head of APAC at ALTEN) said, that in accordance with the ALTEN’s expansion strategy, India will continue to be our biggest market as we expand our footprint and Accord Global Technology Solutions will further reinforce and augment ALTEN’s presence in India from an existing workforce of 8000+” said Pascal Amore, EVP, Head of APAC at ALTEN.

*“At the Accord Group, our evolution has been propelled by the pursuit of high competence and excellence based on our core system of trust and ethical relationship with all stakeholders. This has helped us create great value for our customers, employees and vendors. Today, as our team at Accord Global Technology Solutions joins hands with ALTEN, we are excited that they can leverage the collective capabilities and geographical presence to accelerate business growth, professional growth for the employees, wider and deeper portfolio of services and solutions for the customers and helping us to fulfill our mission of providing innovative products and services to customers in aerospace, automotive, embedded and other safety critical systems. We share with ALTEN a dedication to innovation, and a commitment to and passion for excellence” said J Mohan Sundaresan, Co-founder of the Accord Group.
